SIGNATURE KEYNOTES INCLUDE:

Made Up Mind - How to be UNSTOPPABLE

To be truly unstoppable there can be no room for doubt! Inaction is often the result of fear, procrastination, or conflicting values. To truly make up our mind, we must eliminate the uncertainty caused by these factors, as they will leave us feeling stuck, unfulfilled, and unhappy. In this keynote audiences are introduced to strategies that will allow them to assess their own areas of stagnation, self-correct, develop rock-solid goals and a made up mind that will carry the conviction required for completion and success!

Fear - The Silent Assassin

Fear is a master of disguise but can often be traced back to the murder of dreams, progress, and even physical health. Fear can generate desperation, regretful decisions, or worse - inaction. In this keynote, audiences are introduced to different types of fear and the common disguises fear can take. Attendees are also taught how to move past fear to act on truth and best practices for keeping fear at bay.

Service Marketing - How to use your personal brand to get your foot in the door

Whether you are an entrepreneur, job seeker, or salesperson, technology has made marketing and communication easier, thereby saturating typical marketing channels. In this keynote audiences learn how developing and implementing a service marketing strategy can provide a high return on investment via stronger brand recognition, increased opportunities and access, and personal fulfillment through service.
